

The Aurora Police Department Presents

A Multicultural Police Awareness Event

In the spirit of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s legacy, the Aurora Police Department is sponsoring an evening of dialogue and practical role-playing designed to illustrate police officers' opportunities and challenges in dealing with our citizens and especially with our immigrant communities.

When: Thursday, January 12, 2012, from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

Where: 13387 E. 19th Place, Aurora
(Aurora Police gymnasium)

Come join in a conversation with the men and women of the Aurora Police Department and experience the types of situations encountered by cops in the streets of Aurora. See how they apply Dr. King's lessons of tolerance and respect as they provide services to our diverse and culturally rich immigrant community.

Through role-play simulations, learn how cops and citizens interact and communicate best

- when there is a crisis
- when 911 is called
- when officers stop a car or make an arrest

Evaluate whether there is more we can do as an Aurora community to help our officers continue to develop their skills and services in the spirit of Dr. King.
