2011 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Bethanie H. Tucker, Ed.D. of North Carolina, has been a professional educator since 1972. She has served as a classroom teacher, a resource teacher, a teacher of gifted students, program coordinator, grant-funded project director, and is currently a professor of education at Averett University in Danville, Virginia.

While teaching at Averett, she researched and developed Tucker Signing Strategies for Reading, a decoding method using sight, sound, and movement that has been highly successful with struggling readers nationwide and in some foreign countries. Through aha! Process, Bethanie provides training and consulting services for reading, A Framework for Understanding Poverty, and Under-Resourced Learners. An experienced consultant, Bethanie has presented numerous workshops for aha! Process since 2000.

Bethanie H. Tucker is the author of Tucker Signing Strategies for Reading and Reading by Age 5, and co-author of Understanding and Engaging Under-Resourced College Students.

Temple Grandin, Ph.D. is a doctor of animal science and professor at Colorado State University, bestselling author, and consultant to the livestock industry on animal behavior. As a person with high-functioning autism, Grandin is also widely noted for her work in autism advocacy and is the inventor of the hug machine designed to calm hypersensitive persons.

Grandin is listed in the 2010 Time 100 list of the 100 Most Influential People in the World in the category Heroes. She has been featured on NPR and major television programs, such as The Today Show, Larry King Live, and the BBC special The Woman Who Thinks Like a Cow.

Her current bestselling book on autism is The Way I See It: A Personal Look at Autism and Asperger's. She also authored Unwritten Rules of Social Relationships, Animals Make us Human, Animals in Translation, Thinking in Pictures, and Emergence: Labeled Autistic.

Grandin is the focus of a semi-biographical HBO film, titled Temple Grandin, starring Claire Danes. The movie was released in 2010 and received five Emmy awards, including Outstanding Made for Television Movie.
