

Educating a Rainbow of Children

~~~~~Saturday, September 17, 2011~~~~~

About the Conference

This is the 3rd Aurora Public Schools Educating a Rainbow of Children Conference. The topic for this year's conference is:

Culture, Community and Our Classrooms: Examining the Impact of Equity through Relevance, Rigor and Relationships

Keynote Speaker

Gary R. Howard has 35 years of experience working with issues of civil rights, social justice, equity, education and diversity. He is a keynote speaker, writer and workshop leader who travels extensively throughout the United States and Australia. His most recent book, We Can't Teach What We Don't Know, Second Edition (2006), was published by Columbia University and is considered a groundbreaking work examining issues of privilege, power and the role of White leaders and educators in a multicultural society. His current work is centered on leading Equity leadership Institutes, which provide organizations with the internal capacity to implement long-term systemic change strategies for achieving greater equity and social justice in their practices.

This conference is open to all teachers, classified staff, parents, students and community members. It will be held at our newest facility, Vista Peak Preparatory School located at 24509 E. 6th Avenue, Aurora, CO, 80018.
