FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JAPAN AMERICA SOCIETY OF COLORADO HOSTING FREE JAPANESE FESTIVAL

Denver, CO, (10-10-2011) – The Japan America Society of Colorado (JASC) announced the First Annual Harvest Moon Festival will take place on Saturday, October 15.

The free 1 – 8 PM event at Eron Johnson Antiques Warehouse on 389 South Lipan will celebrate a mix of modern and traditional Japan. The evening will finish with a performance by Taiko Society of Colorado Springs. Japanese food and snacks for sale will be abundant. Talks and demonstrations will run throughout the event. Japanese goods, including anime, art and antiques, will be auctioned and for sale.

The event will be a chance for the public to experience “all things Japanese,” and to be immersed in the Japanese culture.

For more information about this free celebration, contact the Japan America Society of Colorado at info@jascolorado or 303-592-5364.
